II.1.4) Short description

The objective of the procurement procedure is to conclude an agreement with a vendor that designs, supplies, implements and supports an HPC cluster.

With the European procurement procedure, TU Delft is applying the principles and selection process of Best Value.

With the Best Value approach, the contracting authority seeks to appeal to the distinctive character of tenderers and has a somewhat non-traditional interpretation of finding and retaining cooperation and partnership. The philosophy and methodology are aimed at identifying and contracting an expert vendor who demonstrates with its tender that it can deliver high performance and minimize risks at a realistic price.
