We received three more questions in response to the second Information Memorandum. Although the period to submit questions has expired, we have answered these questions. Based on these answers, a single Requirement has been dropped. We are offering disengaged market parties the opportunity to reengage. In order to give these market parties the opportunity to prepare their (potential) tender well, we are extending the registration period from 10th January 2022 to 20th January 2022.
