II.1.4) Short description

The Netherlands Enterprise Agency (NEA) is an executive department of the Ministry of Economic Affairs. NEA stands for implementing policy for enterprising Netherlands in the field of innovation, sustainability, agriculture and international cooperation. In this way, NEA contributes to a Netherlands that is economically stronger and has a sustainable society. Within NEA, the EU Core Processes Directorate (KPEU) is recognised as a European Paying Agency. This means that it is authorised to implement European regulations and to pay out related European subsidies. This assignment entails the execution of services concerning the monitoring area based subsidies of the CAP. Furthermore NEA desires support in executing and developing opportunities to further improve the quality and efficiency of controls which result from EU based legislation.
