Title: CoCreateMyCity Kurdish Region of Iraq

Description: The aim of this project is to provoke an entrepreneurial mindset among students at different universities, inspire university staff to include entrepreneurship more in their curriculum and solve real (business) challenges in the region and their cities. This project aims to contribute to entrepreneurship being part of education, inspiring selected universities with an example of how to incorporate practical entrepreneurial skills training for young/new entrepreneurs. Students working in interdisciplinary teams bring together knowledge of local needs and practices, out of the box ideas for sustainable solutions and entrepreneurial skills to identify real business opportunities in a local setting. Students will be inspired and stimulated to start their own business and the CCMC project can be used as an example in conversations with the university deans and Ministries for follow up programmes aimed at curriculum adaptations. € 94.920
