Title: Market consultation production casing for hydrogen storage

Description: For the 4 new caverns for hydrogen storage as described in paragraph 1.3 of the document "Market consultation production casing for hydrogen storage" Gasunie foresees the need for production casing. There is also a possibility that Gasunie will need production casing suitable for other media such as nitrogen, CO₂ and natural gas. The scope of the production casing as currently foreseen by Gasunie is shown in: - The Excel document "Annex 1 Scope and questions to respond to the market consultation Production casing". With the description of the expected scope, we ask you to answer the questions in the market consultation. In this market consultation you can also indicate your ideas and possibilities that do not fall within Gasunie's stated design and scope. To get a clear insight into the possibilities in the market, it was decided to carry out a market consultation for production casing for the storage of hydrogen. Gasunie invites suppliers to respond and greatly appreciates their contribution. Gasunie hopes to gain more clarity on the following points: • Are Gasunie's requirements relevant, realistic and achievable. In other words, can the market deliver production casing according to the scope Gasunie can currently provide. • Gather information from the market about production casing suitable for hydrogen, natural gas, CO₂ and nitrogen applications as described in paragraph "1.5 Scope of the contract" of the document "Market consultation production casing for hydrogen storage"; • What solutions the market offers in relation to the questions and requirements of Gasunie; • Obtaining a cost indication to be able to set the target value of a tender as accurately as possible; • What does the market look like and what differentiates parties; • The expected trends and developments in the market of production casing. Gasunie wants to use the information obtained from the market to prepare a European tender for production casing for hydrogen storage. For the 4 new caverns for hydrogen storage as described in paragraph 1.3 of the document "Market consultation production casing for hydrogen storage" Gasunie foresees the need for production casing. There is also a possibility that Gasunie will need production casing suitable for other media such as nitrogen, CO₂ and natural gas.
