2.1 Procedure

Title:	Market orientation concerning the next steps toward a coordinated vision for water resilience in the greater Semarang region, Indonesia
Description:	Under the Partners for Water programme, RVO is conducting a market orientation to collect information in preparation for a potential European tender for a project focused on developing an integral, landscape-based, inclusive and finance-ready approach for water resilience in the greater Semarang area of Indonesia. The anticipated European tender builds on the ongoing collaboration between Indonesia and the Netherlands in the field of water resilience and sustainable urban development. The objectives of this market orientation are: • To identify potential parties interested in this assignment; • To assess the feasibility of interested parties forming a team with a mix of international and local experts possessing the necessary expertise to deliver the required services; • To gather input on the value of services that match the anticipated activities of this assignment; • To gather insights to further refine the proposed tender content and process, with the goal of enhancing the quality of responses for the potential upcoming European tender. The market orientation document can be downloaded from the TenderNed documentation page. Interested organizations are invited to submit an expression of interest via email at jessica.scheffers@rvo.nl of the Procurement Office. The indicative budget for this assignment is set at €500,000 – €600,000, excluding Dutch VAT and including any applicable local (foreign) VAT, as well as all other costs and fees. No rights may be derived from this indication.
