2.1 Procedure

Title: KEM-54 Interactions between salt storage caverns

Description: TDO requires to improve the understanding of stability of a cluster of caverns with various operations, like leaching and storage. In the future there may be salt domes with multiple storage caverns. This could include hydrogen storage operations, compressed air storage, or caverns due to the production of salt, which have their own operation parameters. It is therefore imperative that knowledge of stability and cavern interactions with different operations need to be understood well. 350.000 euro
