Title: Local Representative in Indonesia

Description: This expert plays a critical role in strengthening Invest International's positioning in Indonesia. He is a well-regarded figure within both the Indonesian Government and the Dutch business community, with strong relationships and deep knowledge of the country's institutional landscape. He was instrumental in negotiating and concluding the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on Financial Cooperation with the Ministry of Finance, which has since led to the development of three infrastructure projects now included in our financing pipeline. He consistently facilitates access to senior-level decision-makers, enabling swift coordination and effective engagement with Indonesian counterparts. His support was also crucial in finalising the Grant Arrangement for a hospital project in Jakarta, where he helped align expectations between Invest International and the Competent Authority.
